Dear Don:

Per our conversation of this afternoon and a subsequent one with Don Mulcahy, this is to confirm our pleasure in making a CIA presentation to your group at the Fairfax Hotel on Tuesday morning, 19 June, from 10:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. If I can persuade the Executive Director, Lyman B. Kirkpatrick, to participate in the presentation, I shall do so. Though he is obviously the best qualified man to represent the Agency, he is also a very busy one. [redacted] STAT would be an excellent substitute and will be available if Kirkpatrick cannot do so.

I'm assuming that you will make arrangements for a suitable meeting place in the Fairfax Hotel and will confirm with [redacted] STAT any subsequent details. [redacted] can be reached on [redacted]

All the best,

MATTHEW BAIRD
Director of Training
